

CONTRIBUTORS

ASSEMBLIES OF GOD WORLD MISSIONS, the foreign outreach arm of the Assemblies of God USA is committed to bring the gospel of Jesus Christ to every person on earth. Currently more than 2,500 missionaries serve a constituency of more than 60 million people in more than 330,000 churches around the world.

Joseph CUMMING, Ph.D, is an Assemblies of God minister who lived 15 years in North Africa. He serves as director of the Reconciliation Program at Yale University's Center for Faith and Culture. www.josephcumming.com

Mark HAUSFELD, D-Min, has 28 years of pastoral and missionary vocation in Chicago, Pakistan and Central Asia. His foci have been and continue to be creative access evangelism, discipleship and church planting in urban settings in North American and Central Asian Muslim contexts. In 2009, he became the international director of Global Initiative: Reaching Muslim Peoples. The mission of this ministry is to collaborate with Assemblies of God missionaries at home and abroad to reach Muslim peoples

WYCLIFFE BIBLE TRANSLATORS, along with its affiliate organization the Summer Institute of Linguistics, has translated all or portions of the Bible into more than seven hundred languages, with several hundred more in process.