

CONTRIBUTORS

Report of the Third Round of the International Dialogue Between Representatives of the World Communion of Reformed Churches and Some Classical Pentecostal Churches and Leaders 2014-2020

Giang Son (pseudonym) has worked with the executive leadership of the Vietnamese Assemblies of God (VAoG) in the area of theological and ministerial training for over a decade. Giang Son is passionate about recording and retelling the history of the VAoG as a testimony of God's faithfulness to the Vietnamese people. He is an ordained minister and has degrees in Church Ministry and Bible & Theology, and is completing a PhD in a related field.

Jason Morris has preached the good news of Jesus for over twenty years in the US, Latin America and Asia. He previously served on the adjunct faculty of a denominational Bible School and seminary in the US and has now been involved in theological and ministerial training in Peninsular Asia for ten years. He is an ordained minister is currently completing a PhD in Intercultural Studies.

Amos Yong, PhD, is Professor of Theology and Mission and Dean of the School of Theology and School of Intercultural Studies at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California, and has authored or edited over fifty volumes.

Julie C. Ma, PhD, serves as Professor of Missiology and Intercultural Studies, Oral Roberts University, Tulsa, OK. She previously served as a Korean missionary in the Philippines (1981-2006), and as Research Tutor of Missiology at Oxford Centre for Mission Studies, Oxford, UK. Her publications include When the Spirit Meets the Spirits: Pentecostal Ministry Among the Kankana-ey Tribe in the Philippines (Peter Lang, 2000). She served as a general council member and executive committee member of Edinburgh 2010.

Craig S. Keener, PhD, is the F. M. and Ada Thompson Professor of Biblical Studies at Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, KY, USA and is the author of over twenty-five books and commentaries.

Robert A. Danielson, PhD, is the Scholarly Communications Librarian at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky. He also teaches in the E.S.J. School of World Missions and Evangelism at Asbury Theological Seminary as an affiliate faculty.