

Asian Journal of Pentecostal Studies

Volume 2, Number 2 (July 1999)

"Initial Evidence, Again"

EDITORIAL

Initial Evidence, Again? 161-162

ARTICLES

Wonsuk Ma

"If It Is a Sign": An Old Testament Reflection
on the Initial Evidence Discussion 163-175

Robert J. Gladstone

Sign Language in the Assembly: How are Tongues a Sign to the Unbeliever in 1 Cor 14:20-25? 177-194

Simon K. H. Chan

Evidential Glossolalia and the Doctrine of Subsequence 195-211

Jean-Daniel Plüss

Initial Evidence or Evident Initials?:
A European Point of View on a Pentecostal Distinctive 213-222

David Lim

A Reflection on the "Initial Evidence" Discussion from a Pentecostal Pastor's Perspective 223-232

Narciso C. Dionson

The Pentecostal Doctrine of Baptism in the Holy Spirit:
A Pastoral Confession 233-242

Gerald J. Flokstra, III

Sources for the Initial Evidence Discussion:
A Bibliographical Essay 243-259

RESPONSES

William W. Menzies The Initial Evidence Issue: A Pentecostal Response	261-278
Simon K. H. Chan A Response to Max Turner	279-281
Robert P. Menzies Paul and the Universality of Tongues: A Response to Max Turner	283-295
Max Turner A Response to the Responses of Menzies and Chan	297-308

CONTRIBUTORS

309